All complaints/disputes between us, must be dealt with in the Republic of Cyprus, in accordance with the present Complaints Handling Policy and you hereby agree that we shall have the right to resolve any complaint or dispute between us in accordance with the present Complaints Handling Policy.

3.3 Timeframes

Any discrepancies on account statements should be reported to us, in writing, within twenty (24) hours of its occurrence. Failure to object within the above-mentioned twenty-four (24) hour time period may be, at the Company's reasonable discretion, deemed as a ratification by you of all actions taken by us prior to your receipt of such reports. You agree to immediately call to our attention any oral information that you have reason to believe is inconsistent with your own information. You understand, acknowledge and agree that errors, whether resulting in a profit or loss to you, shall be corrected, and your Account with us will be credited or debited in such manner and extent as to place your Account with us, in the same position in which it would have been had the error not occurred.

All other complaints should be reported to us, in writing, within three (3) Business Days from the occurrence of the event that gave rise to your complaint (for the purposes hereof, unless the context requires otherwise, "Business Days" are Monday through Friday, excluding bank holidays in Cyprus). Failure to object within the above-mentioned time period of three (3) Business Days from the occurrence of the event that gave rise to your complaint, may be deemed, at the Company's reasonable discretion, as a ratification by you of all actions undertaken by us prior to making your complaint.

Notwithstanding the above, the Company, as part of its commitment to treat all of its clients fairly, will review and handle a complaint which was submitted outside the timeframes indicated above. However, if your complaint is submitted to us fifteen (15) months from when you became aware, or ought to have been aware, of the issue that gave rise to your complaint, your complaint might not be eligible to be reviewed by the Financial Ombudsman.

4. Procedure to be followed when a formal complaint or grievance is received

Clients who wish to submit a formal complaint must complete the Complaint Form (Appendix 1) available on <https://fbs.eu> or through their Personal Area and send it either in a hard copy form along with a copy of the complainant's identification document and any additional documentation that would be relevant to the complaint, to the Company's business address (see above) or submit the complaint by e-mail to Company's designated email (see above)

a) A complaint and/or grievance is initially handled by the Back Office/Account Opening Department. When complaints are received, all necessary actions shall be taken so that the complaint and/or grievance is properly addressed.

b) The complaint and/or grievance, in the terms that has been received immediately, should be forwarded to the head of the department where the complaint is addressing.

c) An automatic email shall be sent or Back Office/Account Opening Department shall send a written acknowledgement letter (Appendix 2) within five (5) days from the date the complaint was received, informing the complainant of the unique reference number that has been assigned to client's complaint for future reference and that the complaint and/or grievance is under investigation and has been forwarded to the relevant department/person, providing all details so that the complainant is aware of the person/dept who is dealing with his/her complaint and/or grievance. Along with the letter, the Company's Complaint Handling Policy shall be provided to the complainant free of charge.

d) Upon receiving a written complaint and/or grievance, the following details should be obtained and recorded:

- + Complaint Reference No.;
- + name, address and account number (if available) of the complainant;
- + date of receipt of the complaint;
- + department(s) involved in the complaint investigation along with the names of the employees responsible;
- + description of the nature of the complaint;
- + complaint disposition;
- + the capital and the value of the financial instruments which belong to the client;
- + the magnitude of the damage claimed by the client;
- + reference to any correspondence that occurred between the Company and the client.

e) The events leading to the complaint and/or grievance should be examined and assessed based on the information provided by the client.

d) The member of staff, in addition to the above, should make his best of efforts to ensure that the complaint and/or grievance to be resolved immediately, if possible depending on the nature and complexity of the such complaint. In such cases the member of staff shall not:

- Commit him/herself in any way to the client;
- Address any issues in relation to best execution;
- Address any issues relating to legal issues;
- Commit the Company in taking any action prior to examining the issues in a formal manner;
- ✚ The facts, as stated by the client, have been examined and verified whether any additional information, needs to be retrieved from the Company's archive (electronic mail, recorded telephone calls, IT data, etc.);
- ✚ All non-trivial complaints and/or grievances shall be brought to the attention of and their resolution should be approved by the Senior Management;
- ✚ Upon completion of the investigation, a report shall be prepared stating the facts and then be brought to the senior management's attention, which will decide on the formal response to the client and the action to be taken;
- ✚ Upon completion of the investigation, the member of the Back Office/Account Opening Department shall inform the complainant in writing, using a simple language which is clearly understood, about the results of the investigation and the actions taken to satisfy the complainant's demand(s) without any unnecessary delay.

The Company will inform the complainant in detail about causes of delay, a status of the investigation process and an expected date of completion of the investigation by email which will be sent to the client within ten (10) to fifteen (15) Business Days after the date that the complaint was received.

4.1 Final Decision

The Company will attempt to provide its Final Decision within thirty (30) Business Days, from the day the initial complaint is received, but not later than the timeframe provided in the regulation.

In the case where a client complaint and/or grievance is valid, the management shall take all necessary action together with the Head of Department(s) to which the complaint and/or grievance is related with, in order to identify and verify:

- ✚ Reasons of failure/lapse of procedure followed;
- ✚ Weaknesses of the internal controls;
- ✚ Implementation of internal controls that will prevent any complaint and/or grievance in the future.

All suggested procedures shall be approved by Senior Management, at the meeting following the completion of the investigation.

The above-mentioned procedure shall be disclosed in a summarized form to the complainant through the agreement which is signed for the provision of investment services.

4.2 Further Adjournment

If, for whatever reason, we are unable to conclude the investigation and provide a Final Decision (see above) to your complaint within the time limits set forth above, then we will issue what is called a "Further Adjournment".

The purpose of this Further Adjournment is to inform you of the reasons why we cannot provide a Final Decision to your complaint within the time limits set forth above and to provide a further indication of what is happening with your complaint and also to provide an indication of when you can expect to hear from us again.

In the event that you receive a Further Adjournment, we would invite you to discuss the matter personally with our Managing Director. The purpose of this step is to ensure that you (and your complaint) receive the highest priority in those situations where the complaint cannot be fully resolved through normal investigatory processes.

4.3 Submission of Complaint to Financial Ombudsman and CySEC

If you the complainant is not satisfied with the Company's final decision, he/she may check with the office of the Financial Ombudsman of the Republic of Cyprus and seek mediation for possible compensation. It is important that he/she contacts the Financial Ombudsman of the Republic of Cyprus within four (4) months of the date receiving the Final Decision from the Company otherwise the Financial Ombudsman of the Republic of Cyprus may not be able to deal with his/her complaint.

A. Contact Details of the Financial Ombudsman of the Republic of Cyprus:

Website: <http://www.financialombudsman.gov.cy>

Email: complaints@financialombudsman.gov.cy

Postal Address: P.O. BOX: 25735, 1311 Nicosia, Cyprus

Telephone: +35722 848-900 Fax: +35722 660-584, +35722 660-118

In the unlikely event that the Company was unable to provide the complainant with a Final Decision, within a three (3) month time period he/she may again contact the office of the Financial Ombudsman of the Republic of Cyprus not later than four (4) months after the date when we ought to have provided him/her with our final decision.

The complainant may disclose his complaint to the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission. However, he/she should note that the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission does not have restitution powers and therefore does not investigate individual complaints.

It is understood that your right to take legal action remains unaffected by the existence or use of any complaint's procedures referred to above.

4.4 Record-keeping of complaints and/or grievances received

The department held responsible for the record keeping of complaints and/or grievances received is the Back Office / Account Opening Department. Particularly, the Head of the Back Office, or his/her designee, will keep a record for each complaint together with the measures taken for the complaint's resolution.

The complaint shall be registered, upon receipt, on an internal archive and in an appropriate manner. The Head of the Back Office, or his/her designee, shall maintain a central record of all complaints and/or grievances for a minimum period of five years.

The relevant Department is required to report to the Senior Management, on at least a monthly basis, on the complaints handling reporting to CySEC, as well as on the remedies undertaken or to be undertaken in relation to any deficiencies and/or weaknesses that may be identified.

4.5 Accountability to CySEC

The Company is required to provide the Commission with information regarding the complaints it receives and explain how these are being handled. The Company has the obligation to complete Form T144-002-01 and electronically submit it to CySEC. The said form is to be submitted on a monthly basis, within 5 days after the end of the reporting month.

5. Updates

The Company will perform a periodical review of this Policy, at least once a year. The Policy is in line with the Company's operational model, and therefore should there be any changes in the operations, these would properly be reflected in this Document.
